UM LAW SCHOOL TO ROBE
50 GRADUATES SUNDAY MORNING

MISSOULA--

Robing ceremonies for 50 University of Montana law school graduates will be at 10:30 a.m. Sunday (June 9) in the UM Music Recital Hall. Degrees will be conferred on the law graduates at the regular UM commencement ceremonies at 2 p.m. Sunday in the Harry Adams Field House.

Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the UM School of Law, will announce the names of those receiving awards, and UM President Robert T. Pantzer will present a brief keynote address during the robing ceremonies. Sullivan and Sandra R. Muckelston, assistant law dean, will bestow commencement hoods on the law graduates.

The invocation and benediction at the robing ceremonies will be presented by the Rev. John B. Wang, an associate professor of foreign languages at UM.

Gary Ericksen, a visiting instructor in music at UM, will present an organ prelude, and Janet Eckberg, a recent UM graduate, will play the flute while Lucien Hut, an associate professor of music, plays the harpsichord during a presentation of a musical composition by J. S. Bach at the robing program.

Robing ceremony marshals will be Gardner Cromwell and Larry M. Elison, UM law professors. Candidates for law degrees should assemble in the Law Building hallway at 10 a.m. Sunday.
